

EXCHANGE OF RINGS

"A circle is the symbol of the sun and the earth and the universe, of wholeness and perfection, and peace and love. It is worn on the third finger, because of an ancient Greek belief that a vein from that finger goes directly to the heart.

These rings mark the beginning of a long journey together. Wear them proudly, for they are symbols which speak of the love that you have for each other."

During the exchange of rings, the Officiant will ask the bride and groom to exchange a few words as they place a ring on their partner's finger.

Here are a few variations...

In token and pledge of our constant faith and abiding love, with this ring I thee wed, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen

I give you this ring as a symbol of our love. With it I wed you, and give you my body, soul, and heart.

Take and wear this ring as a symbol of our love. With it I wed you, and give you my body, soul, and heart.

Take and wear this ring as a symbol of my love. With it I wed you, and commit my life to you forever.
